

THE NATIONAL LAW REVIEW

OFCCP Contractors, Don't Expect That Review Notice in the Mail

Thursday, March 7, 2019

In case you missed it, on Friday, Feb. 22, the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) announced that it is on schedule to post its next Corporate Scheduling Announcement List (CSAL) in mid-to-late March. The list will now include not only compliance reviews but also Section 503 Focused Reviews and Affirmative Action compliance checks.

Perhaps most importantly, the announcement included notification that this will be the first time the OFCCP will post the CSAL and not provide advanced written mailed notices to contractor establishments.

How can you receive a head's up? The OFCCP "strongly encourages" all contractors to subscribe to the OFCCP email updates through its website to receive timely notification of the CSAL. Contractors may also find the current CSAL list online.

GODFREY & KAHN S.C.

Article By Godfrey & Kahn S.C.
Christine McLaughlin
All in a Day's Work™ - Insights on Labor & Employment Law
Administrative & Regulatory
Government Contracts, Maritime & Military Law
Labor & Employment
All Federal

Copyright © 2019 Godfrey & Kahn S.C.

Source URL: <https://www.natlawreview.com/article/ofccp-contractors-don-t-expect-review-notice-mail>