Is the CCPA Really “GDPR-Lite”?

In May of 2018, the EU’s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) took effect. Not to be outdone, California passed its own sweeping data protection legislation in August of 2018 — the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA). In the next installment of our CCPA webinar series, join Mintz partners Sue Foster and Cynthia Larose for a deep dive into the key similarities and differences between the GDPR and the CCPA, as well as practical steps your company can take to assess gaps and map out your path to compliance.
