

In Praise of Toby Flenderson: Data Privacy as a Function of HR

Article By
[Employment, Labor & Benefits at Mintz Levin
Mintz](#)

- Intellectual Property
- Communications, Media & Internet
- Labor & Employment

- All Federal

Monday, July 23, 2012

“Federal Trade Commission” and “humor” are not terms that you might expect to see in the same sentence.

HR could use better PR. Say "human resources" and some people think of Dunder Mifflin's joy-deficient Toby Flenderson from "The Office." But you know better and appreciate the job your HR team does to keep your organization up and running. They're also a critical line of defense between your company and the onslaught of data thieves and scammers. The BCP Business Center has a special page to make their job a little easier.

Click here, to see a recent posting by the FTC that relates to employment law, HR, privacy law and, yes, even a bit of humor.

©1994-2019 Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C. All Rights Reserved.

Source URL: <https://www.natlawreview.com/article/praise-toby-flenderson-data-privacy-function-hr>