An Update on the Affordable Care Act: Where are we now, where are we going?

Employee Benefits attorneys Kirk Pelikan and Charles Stevens will present on the Affordable Care Act, with a focus on the challenges employers face as we move into 2015 and beyond. Employers must exert strategic approaches to deal with these challenges amidst an environment where government implementation frequently changes. The presentation will be full of practical takeaways for everyone to use as we enter this new era of health care.
