Employers may first apply for Fiscal Year 2018 H-1B visas for individuals not currently in H-1B status on Monday, April 3, 2017 for a start date of October 1, 2017.

United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) received approximately 236,000 H-1B petitions during the first week applications were accepted for the Fiscal Year 2017 H-1B visa cap and conducted a random lottery to select the 85,000 petitions for the H-1B cap (65,000 for the general category and 20,000 for the US advanced degree category). We anticipate similar high demand again this year.

This H-1B cap limitation does not apply to extensions of H-1B status, those obtaining H-1B status to teach at colleges, universities, related nonprofit or government research organizations or J waiver physicians.
