Distribution & Franchise Legal Update: Gearing Up for Growth

You are invited to an exclusive educational and networking event, hosted by AM Law 100 Foley & Lardner LLP and leading audit, tax and advisory firm Grant Thornton LLP. Attorneys and experts from both organizations will offer topical, practical advice to corporate counsel and executives through informative presentations on managing your distribution channel, cybersecurity, global trade risk & compliance, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and other subjects of critical import to you in getting your products to customers.

There is no cost to participate in this program, but advance registration is required
